Ty Bennett far exceeded expectations as the keynote speaker for our premier conference. He quickly engaged the audience with laughter, questions, stories and invaluable lessons for anyone looking to gain more influence and trust with prospective clients. I was particularly impressed at how he related his message directly to our audience of financial advisors. Ty received rave reviews on hundreds of evaluations, and that is from an experienced and critical group who see top speakers all the time. He won our audience over from the start, and of course, that won me over! He made us look great.

Thanks Ty.
