To Whom It May Concern,

Finding the right motivational speaker that can meet three different organizations expectation can be difficult. Idaho FCCLA, HOSA and SkillsUSA combine forces every year to bring in one speaker to speak to the three student organizations over a two day period.

Mr. Ty Bennett met and exceeded our expectations. Ty spent quality time with each state advisor to develop a message that was unique to the year's theme and unique focus. His presentation also included attributes unique to Idaho that our student members would identify and remember long after the conference.

Each student organization had a different delivery expectation for their keynote and follow up sessions. Idaho FCCLA was very impressed with the detail and continuity between the Professional-Technical Education state administrator, the conference opening dignitary, and Ty's keynote session. It was uncanny how Ty was able to weave two presentations delivered prior to his keynote to compliment his leadership and personal growth motivational theme. Idaho FCCLA was complimented for having the best opening session on record. This will be a hard act to follow. We owe a huge thanks to Ty for setting the positive pace for our conference.

Ty has the unique ability to "tie" it all together. I highly recommend Ty Bennett to any organization looking for a personable, focused on detail, motivational speaker.

Sincerely,

Theresa Golis
State Adviser
