While doing an internet search for a “Motivational, Leadership Speaker,” Ty Bennett’s picture caught my eye. In a sea of tired, old speakers, his youthfulness was a factor I thought would resonate well with my Young Dairy Leaders Institute audience. I was right, and then some. His gentle and sincere presentation style is like nothing I have seen before in such a powerful keynote.

In survey feedback, one participant said “I have never, ever seen such a good presentation!” On a scale of 1-5 with 5 being best, the audience gave him an average 4.95 rating.

From a meeting planner’s perspective, he was great to work with. Ty met all my deadlines, had a pre-call to get to know our audience better, and made all his arrangements hassle-free.

As word gets out in our industry on Ty Bennett, I can only wish I could keep him to ourselves as a hidden gem with an amazing future as a high-powered, inspirational speaker!

Sincerely,
